Romero Scoops Independent Regional Broker of the Year

Insurecom users Romero Insurance Brokers have scooped the prestigious independent regional broker of the year award at the Insurance Times Awards last week.

Hosted by radio and TV presenter Vernon Kay, the awards were held at Battersea Evolution in London on 6 December 2011.

The Leeds based tamUK brokers have already bagged an Insurance Times Claims award this year and are delighted with their second win.

Managing Director, Simon Mabb, said: “We are really proud to have won the award and it’s really a great end to the year - it has been very successful 2011.

“What makes Romero stand out from the competition is our high level of customer service that we give to our clients particularly in claims and client servicing. Our achievements is also down to the quality of the people that we have working here - the whole team has been pulling together to make us successful.”

Simon and the team will not be resting on their laurels – Romero are awaiting their CII Chartered Insurance Broker Status and have a packed 2012 to look forward to.

“Romero are a very aggressive new business broker and that’s what has been key to our success – we have had some recent business wins which is great and we are aiming to double the business in the next five years.

“We have got a few exciting developments for next year and will be making announcements in Q1. We will be focusing on growing the business and who knows we may enter for a few more awards too.”

Editor-in-chief Ellen Bennett said: “The Insurance Times Awards are always the highlight of the year – and this year was no different. 2011 was our biggest event yet, and I would like to congratulate all our hugely deserving winners and thank everyone here tonight for being a part of it.”
